CLUB MUSICAL ENTERTAINMENT AWARD RULES

The Lions and Leo Clubs will compete in separate categories.

- One (1) or more club members who play an instrument or sing or dance. {Please note that funny skits do not belong in the Musical Entertainment category). Singers or dancers may be accompanied by one or more instruments or use recorded music.
- All participants in a “group”, must be members of the same Lions or Leo Club
- Those participating at the multiple district level are the district winner, or in the case where the winner is unable to compete in the Multiple District contest, the district runner-up.
- At the district level, the Lions Club or Leo Clubs must notify the District Contests and Awards Chairperson in writing (email or letter) of their desire to participate in the Musical Entertainment Competition at the District Convention.

The club’s written notification to the District Contests and Awards (C&A) Chairperson must meet the deadline specified by that C&A Chairperson.

- The District Governor and/or the District Contests and Awards Chairperson will submit the winning club’s name and the name of the runner up to the MD19 Contests and Awards Chairperson and the MD19 Office within 30 days after his/her District Convention.
- If the district winner cannot participate in the MD19 Convention contests and awards, the runner up will represent their district.
- Maximum time allowed for each entrant is Eight (8) minutes with a penalty of ten {10} points being assessed for each minute or major portion thereof over the eight (8) minute time limit.
